TIED SALESWOMEN.

Employers Should Be More Considerate of Their Health.

Interesting Statement by a Young Lady in Brooklyn.

In the vast retail establishments of large cities, many women are employed as saleswomen.

Men formerly held the positions that they now hold, and as the soldier boys are one of the principal features of the parade it is hoped that every merchant will be patriotic enough to see that they get out for the occasion.

ALL READY FOR THE CRASH.

Locomotive to Collide at Merriam

Station This Afternoon at 4 O'clock.

Everything is in readiness for the great railroad collision at Merriam station, on the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis railway, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The scene of the collision is only a ten minutes' ride from the city and trains of twelve coaches each will leave the Union depot every five minutes, beginning at 12:30 o'clock. Arrangements have been made to transport seventy-five thousand people to the scene in a short time, and indications point to an attendance not much less than that. One of the engines has been named

"Gold" and the other "Silver," while one bears the legend of "gold standard," and the other "silver standard." They will meet at a rate of speed of not less than fifty miles an hour. The last train will leave the Union depot at 3:30 o'clock. Spectators will be returned to the city after the collision by 5 o'clock at the latest, so that all will have ample time to get supper and be down town for the Priests of Pallas parade of the evening.

Those who do not wish to go by train can go by bicycle, horse or carriage by way of Westport, over a fine macadam road, and no doubt many will go that way.

The drive is but a short one.

The on proceeded from 1 o'clock to 3:30 o'clock by a band concert between the Gormly band, of Topeka, Kas.;

Light Guard band, of Carthage, Mo.; Clinton band, of Clinton, Mo.; Marine band, of Springfield, Mo.; and the First Regiment band, of Guthrie, O. T.

Flower Parade Photographers.

The Kansas City View Company have appeared in the official programme for the Karnival Krewe parade with instructions to take pictures of every entry in the flower parade to-morrow afternoon. The pictures will be taken on Broadway between Tenth and Eleventh streets, where a white canvas wall forty feet long and twenty feet high has been erected as a background.

To Attend the Festivities.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 5.—(Special.) The

First regiment military band of thirty-five members left here to-night, accompanied by fifty citizens, for Kansas City to attend the carnival and Priests of Pallas parade. Fully 300 people will also go from other points in the territory.

Coming by Thousands.

All trains coming in from Kansas and Missouri points are heavily loaded with "Carnival" visitors. Nearly all roads are running specials and all regular trains are carrying extra equipment. There is no doubt but that the facilities for handling the crowds, both going and coming, will be ample.

The Model's Band Concert.

The Model clothing store at Tenth and Main streets, near Tenth, will give a concert, to-morrow to-night, to please the toners, will to-day and to-morrow offer two special musical programmes by the "Third Regiment" band. The concerts will be given from 9 to 12 o'clock and will be free.

Trains to Leave at 11 O'clock.

To accommodate persons wishing to leave

Kansas City late to-night and Thursday night, the Rock Island will hold its west bound trains, whose regular schedule time is 9:40, until 11 o'clock.

Denver's Fall Festival.

Denver, Col., Oct. 5.—The heavy arrivals to-day indicate that there will be nearly 10,000 visitors in the city during the annuual carnival, the Festival of Mountain and Plain, which will open to-morrow afternoon with the great Pageant of Progress.

Music and the Drama.

It is a significant tribute to Mr. Chauncey Olcott that he has revived a sustaining degree of interest in the Irish comedy drama, that some years ago was vastly popular, but which seemed to have been Scandal retired from the stage, for it had already waned save an interest clung to the lamented singer. There is nowadays a demand for some degree of consistency in plays of serious intent, and for Mr. Olcott to succeed in entertaining a Coater audience as he did last night with such a strangely constructed play as "Mavourneen," with its traditional makeshifts, its unpleasant and even grotesque interpolations, is an achievement that one hardly expects.

Yet there have been few audiences at the Coates this season more delighted than was that of last night. The play and its purposes were given respectful consideration, but it was not the singing of Mr. Olcott aroused especial enthusiasm. No other singer who has taken to the comedy drama, either Irish or German dialect, has possessed Mr. Olcott's gifts, considered from a purely musical standpoint, for he not only has a voice of rare sweetness, but he is an artist of considerable attainment. It will be remembered that in the last productive school, being not only a capital singer, with a repertoire of catchy songs, but being an actor of more than ordinary refinement and grace, with a particularly genial expression, Mr. Olcott has managed to attract and hold favor where others have failed.

A particularly interesting figure of the supporting company is Miss Georgia Busby, who is rather pretty, and has a most engaging voice. The company is well equipped, and the play is well staged and well costumed, the settings of the latter part of the eighteenth century being especially attractive. To-night "The Irish Artist" will be the bill.

There will be a special matinee of "The Devil's Auction" at the Grand this afternoon.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 5.—Richard Mansfield, with his full company of sixty-four persons, to-night opened the season of '96-97 at the Creighton theater, in Omaha. The engagement has always been a society event here. He remains in Omaha for the entire week, presenting "The Merchant of Venice," "Scarlett Letter," "Richard III.,"

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," "Beau Brumm-age" and "A Parisian Romance." The full Garrick theater stock company is represented. They have been rehearsing here for a week, coming to Omaha direct from New York. The company is supplied more elaborately with special scenery than ever before. The advance sale opened Saturday and everything for the entire engagement has been disposed of.
